

AR.

GALERIE
ADRIANO
RIBOLZI
MONACO

Roman Center Table

Circa: 1785

Roman Neoclassical giltwood center table, circa 1785

Sicilian jasper top bordered by a boldly carved rope-twist moulding.

Pierced frieze decorated on both sides by an Apollo mask flanked by beribboned drapery swags and bucrania at the corners. Four fluted legs with leaf-tip carving and joined by a stretcher mounted with a pierced straw-basket attached with drapery swags.

H. 3 feet 6 1/2 inches

W. 5 feet 2 1/2 inches

D. 2 feet 10 1/2 inches